

Moville Chamber of Commerce Minutes
January 9, 2017

Lisa Fouts gave the prayer.

Chamber President Chris Countryman was absent so Jeannie Krueger led the meeting.

Jeannie thanked Misty's for the meal.

There were no guests present.

Chamber minutes are available at www.visitmoville.com or by seeing Lisa Fouts.

Old Business:

School News : Mr. Glackin recognized Student of the Month, Shawn Enstrom. He was awarded a certificate for being named Student of the Month. Shawn was chosen for the award because he recently earned his Eagle Scout rank for installing pet waste stations around Moville. Other news, the house adjacent to the school parking lot will be demolished and will make room for a larger parking lot.

City News: Jim Fisher announced that the city was working on the budget at this time. Also, there was a water leak recently during the cold weather, and it has been repaired.

MCDAI: Stee mentioned the house on 4th Street which they own and are trying to make plans for moving forward. He encouraged everyone to support the grocery store. Humane Society caramel apples are for sale $15 – contact Stee.

New Business:

Pam Clark of the American Legion Auxiliary requested that the Chamber help fund sending a girl to Girls State. The Auxiliary is sending 2 girls to Girls State with the help of the Woman's Club. Jim Fisher made motion to give $450 to send another girl with Pat Rogers second.

Joann Sadler, Quiltin' Bee, told the members about the upcoming Quiltin' Bee at the Community Center on Feb. 4. This will be the 3rd year in Moville and all the funds raised go the June E. Nylén Patient Advocacy group.

Speaker: Katie Cloud, Katie & Co., spoke about her business of furniture restoration. She is hoping to offer classes on painting furniture and with her growing business she is wanting to find an intern to train to help her. The Chamber presented her with her $250 grant check that she can use for advertising.

Next meeting is February 13 at Misty's.

Attendance: 30