

Moville Chamber of Commerce
September 8, 2015

Opening prayer was given by Ed Frank.
Chris Countryman thanked the caterers for the meal.
Guests were introduced: Rebecca Krohn

Old Business:

- *Treasurer's Report was given by Jeannie Krueger. Balance on hand after paying for meals $8,552. 50.
- *Minutes are available at www.visitmoville.com or from Lisa Fouts
- *School News: Mr. Glackin reported that there are lots of new teachers and staff. There is a cross country meet tonight in Brunsville.
- *Moville News: Mayor Fisher announced that 2 police officers have been hired. There were 13 applicants. Water main project will be finishing soon. The Pavilion has been rented several times with many positive comments. Community Center has 5 consecutive weeks of bookings. City announced that the land formerly occupied by Rosie Walker is for sale. There are 4 positions open on the city council- deadline for papers to be filed is Sep 17.
- *MCDAl: Stee reminded everyone that the MCDAl annual meeting is tonight. Stated grants are available through the organization for new businesses.
- *Moville Days Golf Tournament: Good weather and lots of participation. Chris recognized for his work in spearheading this event every year.
- *Moville Days: Many new events that were well attended.
- *The Record news: Blake Stubbs has been named publisher/editor and majority owner.

New Business:

- *Schedules are available Chamber lunches. Note that farmer appreciation has been moved to March.
- *Kelsey K. will be an opening act at the Clay County Fair. Her facebook account has many updates. She has big news coming soon.
- *Homecoming: Throwback theme. Skits are needed for coronation night.
- *October speaker will be Senator Bill Anderson.
- *October 31st – Halloween parade. Businesses encouraged to participate in handing out treats to trick or treaters.
- *Marcia Walker announced the tailgate sponsored by the Quarterback Club.
- *Pam Clark reported that the cemetery locator structure is under construction. Funds are still needed in order to keep the data updated for the system.

Guest Speaker: Rebecca Krohn from Siouxland Community Foundation.

Next Chamber meeting is October 13, 2015 at noon.
Today's attendance: 30