

Moville Chamber of Commerce Meeting
October 8, 2013

Opening prayer by Pastor Rodriguez

Chris Countryman thanked the members of New Hope Church for serving the lunch.

Old Business:

Treasurer's report: The treasurer's report was not available, but it was reported that $4500 was returned from the Ag Expo project.

Moville News: Mayor Jim Fisher reported that the city hoped to have the Pavilion done by Halloween. The city crew is busy winterizing. New head for the street sweeper has been purchased. The Ridge project streets are almost complete.

School News: Mr. Glackin introduced Mr. Bennar, who has developed a new scholarship for WC students. 230 WC students went to 13 locations on Wednesday to pick up debris and help property owners following the tornado. LB may send kids to help with clean up Thursday. School needs gloves for kids to work in-notify the school if you have some to donate. City is collecting donations. Sioux City businesses are giving totes, gloves, etc to help with clean up and recovery.

MCDAl: (Stee Maxwell)Water line project to the grocery store has been moved to the spring.

The Ridge: (Heath Mallory) Updates and visuals were given about the project.

New Business:

Halloween parade will finish at the Main Street Park Pavilion with free food and games. Would like to get ideas for activities for the tweens to get them involved. Robin Beck made a motion that the chamber allocate $400 for Halloween events. Stee Maxwell -seconded the motion. Motion accepted.

Guest Speaker: Bob Bartling with the Siouxland Red Cross. 1300 meals have been served, 1490 snacks, and there were 43 American Red Cross volunteers involved after the area tornado.

Kent Amundson from the Woodbury County REC reported that 10 Woodbury County REC lineman have been working to repair and get electricity restored to the affected areas as well as 20 additional lineman from other cooperatives. There were 50 broken poles and 21,000 miles of line effected by the storm.

Next Chamber Luncheon is November 12, 2013 at the Community Center.

Today's meal attendance: 34